NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Suggestion that the cost may be met from the available balance in the Med Budget is not financially acceptable; a specific source to meet the charge should, it seems, be suggested before the expenditure is sanctd.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith copy of a letter dated 30th October 1913 from one V. D. Pandit (with a specimen copy of the Nighantu published by him), I have the honor to recommend that the Government may be pleased to order each of the Hospitals and Dispensaries in the State being supplied with a copy. This is an useful publication and will help such of our Medical Officers and subordinates as are willing and have the capacity to make ~~experiments~~ experiments with indigenous -- drugs in the treatment of diseases, especially in the case of villagers. It will help them to easily find out the vernacular names of the herbs, etc., and knowing the actions of the roots, preparations, etc., of plants belonging to similar or same Botanical order, they will be in a position to try and use indigenous herbs readily available round about them.

The cost may be met from the available balance in the Medical Budget at the end of the official year.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

P. S. Achyuta Rao

Senoir Surgeon.

Letter Dated 30th October 1913 from Mr. V.D.Pandit, Chickpet, Bangalore City, to the Senoir Surgeon with the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

"Herewith please find "Pandit Nighantu" a glossary of all medical drugs and herbs in eight Indian languages, in three parts (Kanarese-Hindi, Mahratti, Guzarathi, Telugu, Tamil), (Sanskrit-Kanarese), (Latin-Sanskrit), with index of each language separately printed.

The book will speak of its merits by itself and h the opinions of several professional men and authors will indicate an idea of the labour and expense as well as time it has cost me.

I need not say that this is thefirst book of its kind, useful to all men in all stages and professions, and has supplied the long felt want.

Under these circumstancesI humbly request that copies of the work may be purchased and thus help me in -- bringing out my other works of greater importance."
